When my children were young, they spent many hours fishing from the bridge. Sometimes in the very early hours of the day I would stop there before work. I would wander half way across with coffee in hand. Such a magical place at that hour. I would do it a great injustice to try and describe it in words. I am sad that I can no longer do that. Sad that other families with young children can no longer enjoy what we have enjoyed. Please keep this treasure open. Thank you.
