

Three choices

COUNCIL CHOICES	PRO	CON
Put the $200,000 into the general fund	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> reduced property taxes by $1.75/month for one year 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Levy fund drained dry Annual mission targets increase beyond 4700 tonnes Grant money left on the table Inconsequential property tax savings No plan for Woolwich P and he has to give the OK emission reductions
Hire a Sustainability and Climate Change Coordinator for two years, modelled on the Woolwich Economic Development funding that	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grant applications may cover the salary Grant applications may more restore the funds beyond original Utility costs reduced by energy reduction projects Emission reduction targets addressed Woolwich will have an emission reduction plan
Like last year, do nothing and allow Green Levy to accumulate.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No plan for emission reductions Annual mission targets increase Grant money left on the table